The Democracy held a meeting in the tenth With this view the following order was made, ward at Auer's grocery, and the people were at the April term, 1878: addressed by Judge Orville Yerger, General "Ordered by the court, the "Ordered by the court, that the chairman of this court be and is hereby authozized to appoint agents in the vari us wards and districts of this county, to collect delinquent poli-tax for 1876." Pursuant to this order, Tom Holman, jr., has gone forward with his characteristic fidelty in the discharge of his duty, and collected this tax through his agents. In July this un-pleasant and irksome business was taken out of the hands of Esquire Holman by the elec-tion of Mr. C. Weatherford as back-tax collector. Mr. Weatherford will collect that tax,

W. B. WALDRAN. A Card. EDITORS APPEAL-In your issue of the twenty-first appears an article purporting to be from an "Eye Witness," in regard to the ooting affair at this place last Thursday evening. I have never seen more bare-faced lies crammed in so few lines. In fact, there is scarcely a word without the coloring of an infamous lie in the entire article, from beginning to end. I am utterly surprised that you should give publicity to such stuff.

Respectfully, S. W. THOMPSON. No sensible, fair minded man will fail to see the object of your lying informant. OXFORD, MISS., July 22, 1878. Mr. Faires on Mr. Moore's Card. EDITORS APPEAL-In response to your criticisms of yesterday, and the increased poignancy added to them by the card of my friend J. W. THE GENERAL COUNCIL.

Quorum at Last-Dr. Mitchell's Res ignation Rejected by a Decided Vote-The Mayor's Message.

Important Recommendations Prompt ly Adopted by Both Boards-Quarantine Established.

Promptly at half-past four the sergeant-atarms' roll showed present, Aldermen Brown, Dent, Rourke, Faires, Marcus Jones, Moores Benjes and Hassinger; also, Councilmen Goodyear, Bergmann, Proudfit, Boyle, Quentel, Snowden, Barrett, Seelig, Lawhorn, Woods, Bohan, Renkert, Brinkley, White Brogan and Brinkley. A quorum being announced, Chairmen Brown and Goodyear called their respective boards to order. The board of aldermen was informed that the object of the call by the mayor was to consider information he had in his possession, and which would be delivered in a message, to be read before a joint con-wants? It may be a matter of expediency (it cannot be of ambition), or the advice of men who more regarded money than anything; but however this may be, the songs of his youth, the yell so often heard in his glorious manhood, and the sad greetings of his friends yet will never fall as sweetly on his ears again. It is a sad picture, and the writer draws it in sorrow and regrt.

The Poll-Tax.

Editors Appeal—All the poll-tax goes to the school fund. When it is paid promptly, on the usual notice, no commissions or costs are charge! The school fund is used with the most scrupulous care to keep up and support our city and county schools. About eighteen months ago the board of education of the Memphis city schools joined in a memorial to the legislature, asking that body to except the school tax from that general converse to the Health board to be used for quarantine purposes. I further recommend that my being the provision of the law which postponed the collection of taxes till October, 1877. The Legislature did not have those agreement of the health board to take such steps at once as are necessary to render the quarantine regulations effective. I further suggest that in order to such that any the subject to retiow-fever epidemic in the established at the cost of very city subject to retiow-fever epidemic in the establishment of quarantine regulations should out-weign, it seems, the opinions of unprofessional in-dividuals who may decide against the necessity and efficacy of quarantine laws. I recommend, therefore, that a certain portion of the eight thousand of which the construction of taxes the sound of the control of the school tax from that general provision of the law which postponed the collection of taxes till October, 1877. The Legislature did not head to such that the same throught in production of taxes that in order to a control of the season this exclion to take limited action to prevent the introduction of taxes in the city of the work of the law which, to some extent, prevalls in

On motion of Alderman Moores, the message was received. The question then sprang up on Dr. Mitchell's resignation, Councilman Proudfit moving that "it be not accepted. Alderman Moores moved that "in lieu of the above motion" the resignation be accepted, and said that while the action of the physicians of the board of health should harmonious, inasmuch as Dr. Mitchell felt indisposed to hold the office which he was seeking to resign, he knew that there were a good number of other physicians who could fill the office as well. Alderman Chase said he was not in favor of accepting the resignation, as Dr. Mitchel was the "right man in the right place," and the very best citizens of Memphis, asking the The petition was sent to the desk, when the clerk proceeded to read the names of the citizens who signed it.
